

Globsyn signs MoU with FBI

DNA Money Correspondent.

Ahmedabad

Globsyn group-run Asian Institute of Family Business (AIFB) has signed an MoU with Family Business Institute (FBI), North Carolina, USA. The collaboration will focus on giving consultancy and advisory on business assessment, conflict resolution, succession planning, family governance, growth of family business etc.

"AIFB aims to bridge the gap between higher structured education for entrepreneurship in general and family business. The requirement of such initiative is soaring, as about 60-70% of Indian businesses is family run," said Bikram Dasgupta, chairman and CEO of the Kolkata-based Globsyn group, who was in the city to inaugurate a workshop on 'How to grow your family business through generations'.

AIFB has also organised such workshops with Wayne Rivers, co-founder and president, Family Business Institute, being the key speaker, in Vadodara, Surat and Kolkata.